

Americans Never Thought This Day Would Ever Come

Twenty Years ago today America was attacked like nobody had ever imagined. Attacked by Islamic Muslims bent on killing as many Americans as they could by any means possible. September 11, 2001.

But the day I'm talking about is not what happened that day, but seeing the current administration talk about how the Taliban had acted in a business like and professional way. The administration is apparently considering recognizing the Taliban as the official government of Afghanistan. So if I understand this correctly, the Biden administration concluded the war in Afghanistan ending the fighting with the Taliban, ISIS and Al Qaeda, but stranded hundreds of Americans in Afghanistan and simultaneously armed the Taliban with $85B in high tech military weaponry. A long standing policy of the U.S. was to never negotiate with terrorists, that is unless they forcefully overthrow a legitimately elected government. Still terrorists.

Pieces of a bigger puzzle are being put into place. The liberals want to label everyone as racist. The educators want to teach our children to not think about who attacked us 20 years ago. The administration imports hundreds of thousands of unvetted Afghans into the U.S. The Obama/Biden administration traded a U.S. deserter for terrorists from Guantanamo, Cuba, which are now being assigned as leaders of the new Islamic Emirates of Afghanistan. (Obama was born to a Muslim father). And now Biden wants to kiss their ass. Is the puzzle coming together yet?

The sooner the U.S. turns Red, the better. Biden has successfully ruined this country in only 8 months. A record. And in the process, has embarrassed and degraded the honor of the United States. His actions are nothing short of treason. Remember, you can tell when Biden is lying, it's when his lips are moving.

Remember: NEVER FORGET WHO ATTACKED AMERICA!
